The C. B. & Q. Strike.

The following suggestive circular has been received:

Take the Great American Scal-Route, the C. B. & Q.

Prepare to meet thy God.

Close Connections with the Hereafter.

Through Tickets to Points on the N. B .- Death Claims Promptly Settled. Paul Morton, G. P. and M. L., General Prevarieator and Monumental Liar. From the Wymore Democrat.

The strike is not off, nor will it be, until the C. B. & Q. recognizes produced proofs that sustain his the fact that it must pay as go wages as its competitors, and then sign a treaty with its old engineers and firemen, who have worked and been so successful in bringing it up to its former standing and standard of excellence.

The public realize the fact that a railroad like the C. B. & Q. cannot 36 run with threshing machine engineers and vagrants and drunkards in the places of their old reliable engineers and firemen; and the working men and their friends, or the business public of good judgment will not patronize a road which is at present a menace to life and property, and a road which seeks to crush out an organization which has done more to make traveling a safety than all the companies on this continent combined, by placing competent and sober men on the engines, and an organization which practices industry, sob-iety, truth, justice and morai-COMMITTEE. 6r. Since that trial he was an attorney in another murder case and the accused was acquitted mostly on the lawyer's testimony.

-Parnell has from his place in the English Commons branded the Times letters, attributed to him by the journal, to be forgeries, and has charge, while challenging the Times to controvert them or establish his untruthfulness. This ought to settle that question. Parnell's character has stood in his political career unchallenged and his word is certainly to be taken for as much as the charge of some person of whom the Times received the letters, and to the public as yet unknown.

A Necdless Water War.

The ranchers of Carson Valley are preparing for a water war. It seems strange that men of ordinary sense living in Carson Valley should do so foolish a thing as this.

The country about Sheridan and Genoa abounds in places where water can be empounded with but little cost, and one ha'f the money which the ranchers up there will spend in litigation would build big storage reservoirs which would last

Before this water war is over the lawyers will have most of the ranches, and the ranchers will not have a drop more water than be-

Enough water runs to waste every Winter right past these ranchers to apply twice the land now under mitivation, yet they let the years slip by, and keep themselves poor litigating. In the end the ranchers will have the expense and the lawyers the money.

fession in the ? teher Poisoning Case.

Some years ago Lizzie Lindsay, of this city, was tre I on the cha e of killing Robert Pitcher by a poisoned glass of whisky.

Weilington Stewart defended her, and the main evidence in her favor was a letter which she wrote to her

The effect that she was tired of her wayward life and proposed to commit suicide that night by poison.

This letter was found in her trunk, and the defense was, that after she had written the letter and poisoned the whisky she heard a noise in the next room and went to see what caused it. Meanwhile Pitcher came in, and seeing the whisky on the table he drank it, ing price to be stated through and when Miss Lindsay returned entry box at 6 P. M. the day before she found him in the agonies of death.

This was the plea on which the woman depended for an acquittal, entrance; $10 to accompany nomi- but District Attorney Torreyson on cross examination brought out several facts that raised the suspicion that this letter was written after the marder and fixed up especially to deceive the jury.

The defendant said that when she heard the noise she had just finished writing the letter, and hastily crumpling it up in her hand she threw it on the floor.

The letter bore no evidence of having been handled in this man-No. 8. Novelty race; running. ner, but was neatly folded up and their stock. Purse $300; one and one-half not blotted as would have been the case had it been "crumpled" in the hand just after writing. Mr. Torreyson's theory was entertained by the jury, who found a verdict of murder in the second degree, and the defendant was sent to the State

She n w writes a statement to Mr. Torreyson, the District Attorney, and says that she wrote the letter Purse $1,000; five to enter, three it was dictated to her by her at-
